THE RUSSO-JAPANESE TREATY.

London, Nov. 26.

The St. Petersburg correspondent of the London Daily Telegraph reports serious friction over the Russo-Japanese fisheries dispute. Russia is willing to concede fishing rights along the Pacific coast, but not in bays, rivers, and inlets.

The correspondent continues: "The opinion increases that the peace of the Far East largely depends upon Russia sacrificing even her present modest position on the Pacific. War is inevitable unless Russia yields. The Japanese demands are described as monstrous, but it is feared that Russia is unable to refuse them."

METEOROLOGICAL REPORTS.

SAN FRANCISCO, November 24.

Secretary Merrill, who was sent to San Francisco as a Special Commissioner of President Roosevelt, to investigate into the alleged discrimination against Japanese, has arrived at Washington.

He also reports that the San Francisco authorities are absolutely indifferent to an international imbroglio, and care not for the consequences to the Federal Government.

ROBBERS' VENGEANCE.

The Chinese authorities of the neighboring Province, through the Crown Solicitor, applied at the Magistrate, this afternoon, for the extradition of one Tseng Chai Chi on charges of armed robbery, and murder. The case came before Mr. F. A. Haselard, and Mr. Morrell represented the Crown Solicitor. In outlining the case Mr. Morrell said that the defendant was one (or was alleged to be one) of a gang of robbers who were in the habit of visiting an opium den in the market town of Tsa Lang, which was in the F. Yuen district, not far from Canton. The man first came to the place in the 8th moon of last year and became well known to the proprietor, who had heard it said that they were robbers but was not personally aware of the fact. On January 12 this year defendant and five others of the gang came to smoke opium as usual and while they were thus engaged the village braves made a raid to try and arrest them. The robbers fled through the back of the shop and were pursued by the braves and a fight took place. In this case, of the six men, were captured and the braves came back to the shop to borrow some rope and other gear to tie him up with. This robber appeared to have thought that the partners in the opium den had something to do with the attack and a few days later they came back and attacked the place. They went through the shop and robbed it of money and valuables and departed taking one of the partners with them. Next morning he was found a little distance away with his throat cut. Evidence would be called to identify the defendant as one of the gang and would show that he was present on each occasion when the gang came to the place. The case had not concluded when our report closed.

Disension and Dispute.

In the Supreme Court this morning before His Lordship Sir Francis Pigott, Sir Henry Berkeley, K. C., appeared in support of an application for an injunction against the Directors of the Club Lusitano. Sir Henry pointed out that by arrangement with the other side he was instructed to ask for an adjournment into Chambers with a view to settlement.

It appears that some time ago certain members of the Club were struck off the membership roll and they instituted proceedings against the Directors of the Club for damages and re-instatement. An agreement was arrived at between the parties and by the Chief Justice's direction the Directors of the Club were ordered to pay costs. Personal execution was served upon Mr. Basto, a Director, but on application to the Court the execution was stayed. In order to pay the costs of the proceedings the Directors, as there was no money to the credit of the Club, had the billiard tables removed for the purpose of being sold. An injunction to restrain them from selling the tables was asked for, but the tables had since been returned. In order to have the matter thoroughly settled Sir Henry asked that the matter be adjourned to Chambers. The Club was one of very old standing, having been in existence for 40 years, and it would be quite a calamity to the Portuguese community if it were broken up.

Sir Henry having read correspondence from the solicitors for the Directors the Chief Justice granted the application.

AN INSANE EXECUTOR.

In the Supreme Court this morning, before His Lordship Sir Francis Pigott, Mr. H. G. Calhoun (instructed by Mr. Lang) applied for advice and direction in the estate of Poon Hung (deceased).

According to Mr. Calhoun's motion Poon Hung formerly carried on business in Hongkong and died at San Shing in the Nam Hoi district of Kwong Tung on December 25, 1901. He left a will, in which probate had been proved, and in this will the following clause occurred: "Management shall be returned to him when my eldest son Kit Chit shall have attained his majority." Excepting this clause there was nothing in the will to indicate that Poon Hung wished to appoint Kit Chit executor and trustee on coming of age. Dr. Jordan medically examined Kit Chit on October 31, 1906, and certified that he was of unsound mind and not fit to manage the estate, which at the time of Poon Hung's death was worth at $143,000. The petitioner asked the Court for advice and direction on the following points:

- (1) As to whether under the said will the said Kit Chit would have been entitled to apply for probate on coming of age had he been of sound mind, and whether on coming of age Kit Chit became a trustee.
- (2) Whether it is, under such will the executor (Poon Shau Shik) ceased to be executor on Kit Chit coming of age.
- (3) Whether it is now, in consequence of Kit Chit's insanity, necessary for the petitioner to obtain an order from the Court entitling her to continue as executrix and trustee of the estate.

After argument His Lordship pointed out that it was for the Official Administrator to deal with the matter under the Probate Ordinance.

THE FLEET AT MANILA.

The officers and men of the British Fleet which has just concluded its visit to Manila appear to have had a royal time of it. Our American neighbours have exerted themselves to their utmost, especially in the entertainment of the tars and, as the Celestines remark, "It willingness, money, and efforts count, the visiting British sailors will have left Manila having been entertained as well as it was absolutely possible for them to be." Throughout the visit the American sailors had their British cousins under their care and everywhere in the city there was evidence of good humour and good fellowship. The men of our Fleet were entertained at banquets, concerts, theatres, special train and trip tickets, and in fact by every possible means, and unlimited quantities of beer, tobacco and cigars have always been at their command. A feature of the visit has been the good friendship and unfailing good behaviour of the men throughout the festivities and has been commented upon by the Manila papers in glowing terms.
